

PROFILE:

David Wyld

Educated at Harrow and Oxford University he spent some time teaching before becoming a pupil to Gordon Slynn (now Lord Slynn of Hadley) whose practice was in the commercial and constitutional law fields, before joining Linklaters.

- 2002: Launched David Wyld & Co
- 1981 - 2001: Partner at Macfarlanes for 20 years, including 10 years as head of litigation.
- 1974 - 1979: Solicitor at Linklaters. A litigator specialising in administrative and planning law.
- 1972 - 1974: Articled at Linklaters

Positions held:

In addition to looking after the interest of clients in many high profile cases, which included many kinds of commercial and property disputes, some involving insurance, insolvency and environmental related aspects,

David has found time to hold the following position:

- Chairman of The City of London Law Society (2001 - 2004)
- Qualified as a mediator with CEDR (1995)
- President of the London Solicitors Litigation Association (1994)
- Secretary General of International Law Association (since 1994)
- Chairman of the Litigation Sub-Committee of the City of London Law Society 1989-94

Interests:

His clubs include the Honourable Company of Edinburgh Golfers (Muirfield), The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Berkshire Golf Club and the Garrick.

“ We were delighted that David Wyld was able to achieve a successful outcome to a potentially contentious situation without recourse to the courts. ”

Legal Manager,
Britannia Industries, India

“ David Wyld has come to be regarded as a cost effective operator in a variety of domestic and international disputes in the business law community. He is among the outstanding few solicitors in the litigation and arbitration field with whom we deal. ”

Chambers Manager,
3/4 South Square

